WORK IN PROGRESS

In early 1993 there will be an Alumnae/i Directory listing more than 7,000 Hunter High graduates spanning half and century and circling the globe. Don't miss being part of this exciting network. If you believe your current name, address and phone number are not in our files, please send them to the Alumnae/i office immediately (address above).

OPPORTUNITIES AWAIT Hunter alums: Interested in working with researchers, mathematicians, financial strategists? Charles Ardai '87, Director of Strategic Growth for D..E. Shaw & Co., a computational trading and investment company, would be happy to talk to you about employment possibilities. Telephone 212-478-0000 or fax your resume to him at 212-478-0101.

Dear Friends,

Welcome to Reunion '92 and congratulations to milestoneers from far and wide and recent and distant classes. Thank you for turning out to celebrate the happy occasion with us here at Hunter High today.

The past two years have been busy and exciting ones for the Association. A new program of poetry readings has been so successful that it will be continued on a regular basis. Another regional group--Washington, D.C.--has been formed. Publication of an alumnae/i directory moves forward. Our ties to the High School have grown and strengthened.

The Association has a great deal to offer metropolitan-area alums. Join us at a program or meeting during the year and get acquainted. We look forward to your active participation.

And thanks to everyone who helped make my two years as president memorable.

Fondly,
Leggy Perrin

Margaret Betz Perrin '55
