THE ASSOCIATION THANKS Dr. Miserandino, principal; Gerry Gemmola, assistant principal; Ken Sherry; the custodial staff, especially Pearl Cain; and all at Hunter High whose cooperation helped make this day possible. Best wishes to the Violin Group, and to their adviser, Michael Stratechuk. Thanks also to Rhoda and all the people at Riverdale Caterers for their part in making this day a success.

FUTURE ACTIVITIES

Alumnae/i meet during the year for Meet-the-Members programs, the Winter Brunch, Hunter-related theater parties, and for poetry and prose readings. This fall, we are planning a Young Alums group for those in the first nine years after graduation. If there is an activity or speaker that you would like to suggest for next year, please speak to one of the officers today or write or phone the Alumnae/i office. Your Association exists to serve you!

JOIN US!

Become an Alumnae/i Association member in good standing. Pay dues. Help us to keep Hunterites everywhere connected. Help to support the High School as it continues to educate the brightest youngsters in all five boroughs, regardless of race, ethnicity, religion, economic class, or gender. Send your check or money order for $20.00 to the Association (address above).
